WITH THE CHURCHES

Atlanta is to have Billy Sunday when he finishes in New York.

Prayer meeting at the Christian church Wednesday evening at the regular hour.

Presbyterian Church—Mid week service Wednesday evening at 7:30. Woman's Society meets with Mrs. W. H. Higgins Friday at 2:30.

Rev. H. S. Saxby, who has been pastor of the Christian church at Somerset for years, has resigned and will go to Modesto, Cal., to fill a pastorate.

Secretary W. G. McAdoo, who with Mrs. McAdoo, spent yesterday morning in Louisville in behalf of the Liberty Loan, told two audiences that every financial sacrifice must be made by the American people to win the war. The Secretary marched through the downtown streets at the head of the Loan Legion, was presented with a commission as Chancellor of the Exchequer, two loan crosses and entertained at luncheon by the Transportation Club.

REPUBLICANS NAMED TICKET

The republicans got busy yesterday and named a ticket to be voted for in the republican primary of August 4th. Instead of having a scramble for the nomination, the leaders got together and named the men who will be the standard bearers of their party in the coming November election. Of course others may run for the offices which the following gentlemen will try and get, but it will be useless as the word has been sent down the line that they are the favored ones: For county judge, Squire J. A. Singleton, of Waynesburg district; for sheriff, Ed Hubbard, of Stanford; for county attorney, Judge John A. Chappell, of Stanford; for judge, T. J. Burleson, of Highland; for State Senator, John A. Blain, of Hustonville; for magistrate in the Waynesburg district, Mr. Morrell. The republicans are said to have gone at the job in a business-like way and there is no doubt that they have some hope of getting an office or two, which of course they will never do.

NEXT THURSDAY IS FLAG DAY

Next Thursday, June 14th, is National Flag Day. If you have not yet placed a flag in your yard or home, you should do so on or before the above date. The whole civilized world is now waving flags and they all acknowledge that the United States has the prettiest emblem that floats. Every stripe and every star fairly breathes patriotism.

"The moon-kissed stars of heaven And the sun's bright rays of red, The pure white clouds wind driven, All on one surface spread, The flag our fathers honored, The flag for which they bled."

C. H. BELL RINGS AT 9 O'CLOCK

In accordance with a request made by Secretary McAdoo over the phone to Mayor A. B. Florence, the courthouse bell rang at 9 o'clock last night and will do so each night until and including Thursday night. This is to remind the people that the Liberty Bonds have not all been disposed of. It is hoped that the reminder will cause many to thus help their country at this critical time in raising money to carry on the great war that has just been begun.

PECULIAR LOOKING ROCKS

Crim Smith, of the Duncan section, sent to this office by John Peoples, candidate for sheriff, some beautiful specimens of rocks found on his farm. Some of the rocks contain gold ore, others contain silver and others contain iron. There are others that are of a peculiar shape and size and are of a peculiar color. They are all of a peculiar shape and size and are of a peculiar color.

FORETHOUGHT

People are learning that a little forethought often saves them a big expense. Here is an instance: E. W. Archer, Caldwell, Ohio, writes: "I do not believe that our family has been without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since we commenced keeping house years ago. When we go on an extended visit we take it with us." Obtainable everywhere.

SOLD HORSE BY THE POUND

Probably the first horse that was ever sold by the pound in Stanford was sold yesterday, when E. T. Pence, Sr., sold a mare to Charles Ross, of Winchester at 10c per pound. Both buyer and seller were satisfied. The mare weighed 915 pounds and Mr. Rose accordingly gave her check for $91.50.

"No, sir," replied Mulligan; "he's gone."

"For good?"

"Well, sir, he went in that direction."

GREAT MASONIC CELEBRATION

Extensive preparations are being made by the Masons of Kentucky for the celebration of the bi-centennial of organized Masonry in this State, to be held at Crab Orchard Springs on June 23, and not only every Masonic lodge in Kentucky will be represented, but five thousand additional visitors are expected to attend. The Grand Lodge of Kentucky, by resolution passed at the last session, authorized the celebration of this event, and the committee appointed to carry out this resolution announced today that it has completed all arrangements. A feature of the program will be a barbecue, at which from 5,000 to 8,000 people will be fed. Prominent speakers from Kentucky and elsewhere will entertain the crowds. The music for the occasion will be furnished by a band of fifty pieces from Louisville and the Shriners' band of Cincinnati, consisting of thirty-five pieces. The affair will conclude with a ball in the Springs hotel, the grand march being led by the Grand Master of Kentucky, Hon. James N. Saunders. The celebration and barbecue are free to all Masons, their families and friends. Both the Masonic lodges of Lexington have been appointed special committees to arrange for the trip and the hope to attend in a body, more than one hundred strong. Quite a number of persons from here will also make the trip in automobiles.—Lexington Leader.

SPEAKING DATE CANCELED

Hon. J. R. Mount, of Lancaster, who was advertised to speak here Monday, court day, called off the engagement, because the circuit court room was not in condition to use. He said the county court room is too small and that he could not afford to engage the opera house. Both of the other candidates for State Senator, Messrs. Jay Harlan and Clay Kauffman, were on hand ready to reply, and seemed disappointed that they could not have the pleasure of hearing Mr. Mount and replying to him. Mr. Mount asks the Interior Journal to announce that he will speak at Hustonville at 2 o'clock next Saturday afternoon and at McKinney that night. It is hoped that the people of the West End will give him a good audience at each place. His opponents will likely be on hand at both places and have something to say. Mr. Mount will speak at Danville at 2 o'clock Monday next, county court day, and at Crab Orchard at 2 o'clock and Preachersville at 7:30 P. M. on Saturday week, June 23rd.

1,235 MEN REGISTERED

There were 1,235 men between the ages of 21 and 31 who registered for army service in Lincoln county Tuesday. There was no disturbance at any of the precincts and the registration was carried on in a business-like manner. The registration summary shows that there are four Legislative, judicial or executive officers in the county between 21 and 31; 26 men totally disabled between those ages; 689 who have relatives dependent on them and want to be excused, 30 whose occupation exempted them, and 320 who gave no reason why they should not fight for their country. In the colored column there are 105 men who have relatives dependent on them and 56 who ask no exemptions. There are five aliens within the age of the men subject to draft.

GOOD BANKING INSTITUTION

Our friend and former countyman, Walter C. Greening, who is now cashier of the State Exchange Bank, of Oklahoma City, sends the I. J. a statement of his bank, which shows it to be a progressive one with a capital stock of $100,000 and surplus of $3,000. The bank has loans and discounts of $700,663 and a deposit of $1,107,203.29. Mr. Greening is a born hustler and we expect to see his bank do better and better the longer he is connected with it.

Besides the father, Mr. Maret leaves a wife to whom he was married only a few months ago. She is a daughter of Dr. Steve Brown, of Rockcastle. ELD. JOSEPH BALLOU

Who Celebrated His 50th Anniversary As A Preacher With A Splendid Sermon Sunday

That grand old man, of whom Stanford is justly proud, Eld. Joseph Ballou, celebrated the 50th anniversary of his entrance into the ministry by preaching an excellent sermon at the Christian church Sunday morning, from the text, "Foundation of Our Faith Is Hope." Previous to his sermon, Eld. Ballou stated that during the past 50 years he had preached in 26 counties and had held meetings in 75 churches. He had in that time baptized a grandmother, who carried him in her arms when he was a child. He had also baptized a man 102 years old—the oldest man he ever saw. The best meeting he ever held was at Old Silver Creek, in Madison county. It lasted 11 days and there were 85 conversions. Two lawyers, seven doctors and the same number of preachers became united with the church under his preaching. He said that the best sermon he ever remembered to have preached was to two people, a man and a boy, at Mill Springs, Wayne county, many years ago. On one very bad, rainy Saturday morning he rode the distance—13 miles—from his home at Burnside on horseback, and found on his arrival that there had been some mistake about his appointment. The man and the boy were the only ones on hand and none others came, so at preaching hour he preached to the two. He said that he had never enjoyed a sermon more than that one. He said that he had never enjoyed a sermon more than that one. He said that he had never enjoyed a sermon more than that one.

DRILLING ON COPPER CREEK

The work of drilling for oil on Copper Creek, four or five miles East of Crab Orchard, will begin in a few days and it is confidently believed that oil in paying quantities will be encountered. Some years ago a drilling outfit was placed in that section and some oil was discovered at less than 60 feet. A number of Crab Orchard men are interested in the well now being drilled and if the greasy fluid is found in paying quantities it will prove a big thing for this county.

ALONZO PADGETT FOR SQUIRE

Alonzo Padgett, a splendid democrat and a mighty clever man, announces this issue for Magistrate in the Waynesburg Magisterial district. Mr. Padgett was here Monday mingling with the crowd and met with much encouragement in his race. He expects to canvass his district thoroughly and says he is going to beat his three opponents as sure as gun is iron. He has many friends who hope he will win and will work hard to that end.

DEATH OF AGED WOMAN

Mrs. James Coleman, who would have been 92 years old in August, died at her home beyond Davis Store on the Ottenheim pike Sunday and was buried in the burying ground at Ephesus church Monday afternoon. Her husband died many years ago, but several children are left to mourn the loss of a good mother.

MRS. CARR KILLED

Mrs. Edward Carr, who lived between Harrodsburg and Salvisa, was killed late Saturday afternoon, when her horse which she was driving shyed at an automobile and backed her buggy from a bridge. Her husband, who was with her in the vehicle, escaped with minor injuries.

TO THE PUBLIC

"I have been using Chamberlain's Tablets for indigestion for the past six months, and it affords me pleasure to say I have never used a remedy that did me so much good."—Mrs. C. E. Riley, Illion, N. Y. Chamberlain's Tablets are obtainable everywhere.

Louisville, Little Rock, Arkansas, Battle Creek and San Antonio, were approved by the War Department as additional cantonment sites for the new army.

RED CROSS SOCIETY FORMED

A Red Cross Society is the latest organization for Stanford and it is also one of the very best. The society was formed here Friday afternoon by State Representative Frank C. Green, of Carrollton, and his assistant, Hon. L. Meriwether Smith, of Harrodsburg. The officers are William Severance, chairman; Dr. T. W. Pennington, vice-chairman; Miss Esther Burch, secretary; J. W. Rochester, treasurer. For present the reception room of Dr. Pennington will be used for headquarters. The following young ladies, representing Red Cross Nurses, were busy on the street Monday soliciting memberships in the society and they were very successful: Misses Annie Rogers Powell, Mary Early, Sallie Millsers Powell, Mary Early, Lottie Carson, Mary Elizabeth McKinney, Sallie Burdette, Nancy Katherine McKinney.

Over 200 members have already paid their dues and the greater part of the credit is due the above young ladies, who worked untiringly from early until late with the court day crowd. All honor to the splendid young women and may they continue in the good work so nobly begun.

OWENS FARM SELLS WELL

The splendid farm of Sam M. Owens, near McKinney, was sold by the United Realty Co., of Wilmington, N. C., Friday and close to $30,000 was realized for the 260 acres. The average was about $112.50 per acre. James M. Reynolds, of the Waynesburg section, bought the home place of 130 acres; Frank Martin the 82 acres across the railroad from the residence and A. C. Vaughn the remainder of the farm, 46 acres. Possession will be given in the fall. Mr. Owens, who has lived on the place for 50 years, tells the I. J. that he will not leave the neighborhood, but expects at an early date to buy a small place near McKinney and settle down for life. This will be good news to his many friends in the West End.

SHOT BY A SOLDIER

Letcher, Thurmond, a colored boy of McKinney, was shot in the hand by a soldier who was guarding Hanging Fork trestle the other day. Thurmond was walking on the trestle and the guard yelled to him to stop, but instead the boy ran. Nearly a dozen shots were fired at him, but only one struck him, and that took effect in one of his hands. The wound is not considered dangerous. Asked why he did not stop when told to, he said he had forgotten about the trestle being guarded and was frightened.

COUNTY COURT

day I ever saw in the reply County Court. The judge made this morning in answer to the question, what was doing yesterday? Very little routine business was brought before the court and only one will was probated. That was the last will and testament of Rev. W. S. Grinstead. The document bears date of May 7, 1917, and is witnessed by his sons-in-law, Dr. J. W. Bryant and J. A. Walter. Rev. Grinstead left all of his property, both real and personal, to his widow.

TO VOTERS OF HUSTONVILLE MAGISTERIAL DISTRICT

Please do not think that because I have sold my farm that I am going to leave the neighborhood. I am in the race for magistrate to win and expect to do so, and if the voters of my district will stand by me, I shall carry out my platform to the letter. I am absolutely and uncompromisingly against State Aid. Again asking your support and promising my best service in the event I am your magistrate. Very truly, S. M. Owens.

MR. ROBINSON BURIED TODAY

Mr. John S. Robinson, who died in a Louisville sanitarium last week, was buried at Danville at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, after funeral services at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. T. Hugely. The body was held, awaiting the arrival of Mr. Robinson's daughter, Mrs. Robert C. Sauley, of Phoenix, Arizona. Deceased was president of Crab Orchard Springs Co. and had many friends in this county.

FINED FOR BOOTLEGGING

Tim Buchanan, a well-known Crab Orchard negro, was fined $50 and given a ten-day jail sentence for bootlegging whisky at Crab Orchard Saturday. Owsley Embry, better known as "Dooley," caught a similar fine for a similar offense the same day. A Rockcastle county man named Ballinger "turned them up." Both are laying out the fines in jail.

MR. MOUNT PATRIOTIC

"I had intended to buy a Ford machine to make my canvass for State Senator but changed my mind and bought $300 worth of Liberty bonds and my wife also bought one," said Mr. Mount to an I. J. representative Monday. The gentleman's patriotism is to be highly commended.

WHITE BUYS CHRISMAN FARM

Will W. White bought the Chrisman farm of 90 acres, sold here at Master Commissioner's sale Monday, at $65.50. The place lies one and a half miles East of Moreland and is well improved.

Mrs. Lillie Gibson was acquitted at Nicholasville of killing Mrs. James Smith, at High Bridge in October, 1915.

ENTHUSIASTIC BOND MEETING

Another rousing meeting for the disposal of Liberty Loan Bonds was held at the court-house Monday morning. Mr. J. S. Hocker, as chairman called the meeting to order and asked Rev. F. M. Tindler, of Lancaster to lead in prayer, which he did. Chairman Hocker went into detail concerning the value of the bonds and the necessity of their sale in order that the expenses of the war might be met without burdensome taxation. Cashier H. G. Skiles, of the Crab Orchard Banking Co., also spoke, as did Mr. George B. Lyne, of his city. The latter told in an interesting way what the Young Men's Christian Association of Kentucky is doing for the support of the American boys who will soon be fighting in the trenches of France. He stated that the association would take $75,000 worth of the bonds, and that probably it would go as high as $100,000. Hon. W. H. Shanks followed Mr. Lyne and made an interesting talk. He was followed by Attorney Kindrick S. Alcorn, who showed that it was not only a patriotic duty to buy a bond, but that it was a case of making a good investment and at the same time furthering a great cause. Like many of us, Mr. Alcorn thinks that the present war is a bigger proposition than the public generally thinks. Cashier Ben Hudson, of the Citizens Bank of Lancaster, was present and complied with Chairman Hocker's request for a few words. He said that Garrard county is making a noble effort to float $100,000 worth of the bonds and that he is confident the citizens will do so. Mr. Hudson has two sons who have enlisted for service and he is intensely interested in the outcome of the present conflict. A call for subscription was made, when many of our citizens took one or more of the bonds. The bonds are secured through the banks and the following show the amount taken by the banks of Lincoln county for themselves and their customers: First National Bank of Stanford, $33,550; Lincoln County National Bank of Stanford, $25,000; Hustonville National Bank, $11,000; Peoples Bank of Hustonville, $7,000; Moreland Deposit Bank, $4,500; Crab Orchard Banking Co., $4,000; McKinney Deposit Bank, $2,200; making in all $87,050. A little less than $13,000 yet to raise. The bankers will meet at the court-house at 10 o'clock Thursday morning to dispose of the balance and more if possible. The time for securing the bonds closes at noon Friday next.

DEATH FOLLOWS LONG ILLNESS

After an illness of over two years, Mrs. Joe L. Goode died at her late home on East Main street at 3 o'clock this morning, aged 63. Her death was not a surprise to those around her and who knew her serious condition, for she had suffered tortures from nervousness and rheumatism, until she could stand no more. Besides the husband, who is confined to his bed by illness, Mrs. Goode leaves four children—Mrs. Matt L. Myers and Messrs. G. Goode, of Lebanon Junction, Jack Goode and Eugene Goode, of this city. She is also survived by the following sisters and brothers—Messdames Alice VanArsdale, of Louisville, W. A. Rice, of Grand Junction, Col., and R. C. Nunnally, of this county, and Messrs. J. F. and B. G. Gover, of this county, and James Gover, of Broadhead. For many years she had been a member of Christ's church of this city and was a regular attendant at its services as long as her health would permit. She was an exceedingly kind-hearted and considerate wife and mother and few better neighbors have lived in this city. Her death carries sorrow to many hearts and unbounded sympathy goes to those of the home whose loss is so great. May He Who tempests the wind to the storm lamb give them strength in this dark hour of trouble. The burial will take place in Buffalo Cemetery Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Brief services at the grave by Mr. William Severance.

THE FOLLOWING GENTLEMEN WILL ACT AS PALL BEARERS: R. T. Bruce, J. W. Rout, J. S. Baughman, James H. Woods, James Gover, J. T. Bingham.

RED LETTER DAY FOR W. C. T. U.

Friday was a red letter day in the history of the W. C. T. U. organization in this section. The district convention of that society met here Friday when many delegates and workers for the temperance cause were present. Mrs. Frances Beauchamp, State president, was here and gave several timely talks. One very delightful feature of the occasion was the lecture by Dr. Carolyn Geisel, of Battle Creek, Mich. Her talk was brimful of good food for thought and it is hoped that her message will prove of great help to those who heard it. Sixteen new members were added to the W. C. T. U. and much new life was brought into the cause for which the good women are making such a gallant fight. The election of officers resulted as follows: president, Mrs. J. K. Baughman; vice-president, Miss Maudie Ware; secretary, Mrs. R. A. Lipps; treasurer, Mrs. J. S. Baughman.

THE C. O. BANK PATRIOTIC

The handsome U. S. flag now floats from a high staff on the Crab Orchard Banking Co.'s building, while the cashier of that bank, Mr. H. G. Skiles is doing all in his power to help dispose of Liberty loan Bonds.
